Can English Do It Again?

Only team in the state to defeat Peabody in 1945, Lynn English has already been beaten to the punch this year by two others but hopes to chalk up its second successive win over the powerful Tanners.

A year ago the outcome of the Peabody-English game had an important bearing on the state championship race. This year the result of the annual battle between the two is of no consequence so far as the title race is concerned but each will nevertheless be striving to gain a victory at the expense of the other.

Highly-regarded at the beginning of the season as a possible championship contender, Peabody has failed to live up to expectations and has already been eliminated. The Tanners have scored 103 points in five games to 54 for the combined opposition but their record includes only three wins against two losses. The wins were over Wakefield, 34 to 8; Lowell, 50 to 0, and Revere, 13 to 0. The losses were to Lynn Classical, 26 to 6, and to Beverly, 20 to 0, occurring in both instances at the hands of fine teams which are undefeated.

English was also expected to be an important factor in the Class A race this year but has only two wins in five starts to show for its work although its three losses, all in a row, were by heart-breaking margins in contests where the Red and Gray completely outplayed its opponents only to wind up on the short end in the scoring department.

New Coach Carl Palombo and his staff made an impressive debut with wins over Chelsea, 42 to 7, and Lowell, 27 to 0. In those first two games English gave evidence of more scoring punch than in several years.

But then English dropped three games in succession, the total margin of defeat in the three games being only nine points. In each of the three, English missed opportunities to score touchdowns that would have led to victory instead of defeat, but Lady Luck failed to smile at the proper moments.

The three English setbacks were from Salem, 15 to 13; from Beverly, 12 to 6, and from Lawrence, 14 to 13. The margin of defeat in the Salem game was a field goal. In the Beverly game it was a 91 yard runback of an intercepted pass. In the Lawrence game it was a last-minute scoring drive which started from behind the enemy goal after English had barely missed pushing over the winning touchdown.

The Red and Gray has piled up 101 points in five games to 48 for the combined opposition, and its record in this respect is closely akin to that of Peabody. But on the basis of its work in recent weeks, English appears to possess more offensive power than Coach Bill Seeglitz' visitors.

Rival coaches and scouts who have seen English in action say the Red and Gray has one of the most powerful ground attacks in the state. True it is that none of the five teams already played has been able to halt the English running attack completely. Even the stout Beverly line was penetrated repeatedly by English.

Moreover, English has an aerial attack which is also dangerous. When it clicks, it produces touchdowns and when it misses it doesn't miss by much. Both on the ground and in the air English has the power to become one of the state's best teams. A more adequate defense against passes would find English still in the ranks of the undefeated.

English has fine running backs in Billy Whelan,

Les Locke, Dick Cahill, Charley Ruddock and Murray Fisher; fine blocking backs in Bill Bucklin, Dick Nardella and Bob Anasoulis; fine passers in Whelan, Ruddock, Locke, and Cahill. The problem of Coach Palombo has been to find the right combination in the backfield and he has used these eight boys interchangeably in previous games seeking to put the strongest four on the field as conditions demanded.

The veteran English line, composed of lettermen from end to end, has played grand football not only this year but in earlier seasons. Jack Hennessey and Co-Capt. Marty Smith are a pair of rangy, veteran ends, good pass-catchers and useful as ball-carriers on end-around plays. Bill Kavanaugh and Co-Capt. Vin DiGrande are two husky, veteran tackles with DiGrande also a placement artist. Bill Driscoll and Bill McIntosh, the guards, were lettermen in 1945, Driscoll as a guard and McIntosh as an end. Joe Penney, center, is a veteran two-year letterman.

With so many veterans and with so many talented newcomers, with such a fine attack and with a good defense, nobody can figure out how English has lost three games out of five. And those who saw those three losing contests can't figure it out either, for in every game English was clearly the better team on the field, only to suffer bad breaks and become the victim of unmatchable poor luck. Coach Palombo and his boys figure they've had their share of reverses for the season and may go the rest of the way without further setback.

English has a good chance to get back into the win column against Peabody today. Peabody, a veteran team, has not shown the anticipated improvement over 1945. With a big line and a fast, versatile backfield, the Tanners have been a potentially-great team but just couldn't seem to click against the great Classical and Beverly elevens.

Jimmy Smyrnios is one of the state's best half-backs and Capt. Hercules Harris is a fine ball-carrier and passer. Henry Heidler, veteran end, is a good pass-catcher, and Harold Baker, although he weighs only 140 pounds, is a fine line-bucker. From tackle to tackle Peabody has the weight and experience to make a fine line. If Peabody clicks today as it has on past occasions, the game promises to be exciting and full of thrills.

English hadn't beaten Peabody since 1933 until Dick Cahill ran 40 yards for the only touchdown which turned the trick in 1945. Maybe the Lynners are hoping to start a winning streak of their own to offset the record of Peabody's long domination. But to win they'll have to earn the victory against a Peabody eleven which has come back from the depths of defeat more than once in the past to resume its consistent winning ways.

SIX DIE, 25 HURT IN CAPE BLAST

A HAPPY MAN—He just bought a new 1946 sedan but it means more to Albert deLuben of Johnston Terrace, Saugus, than it would to most people. Though he was the first ex-G.I. employee in Greater Lynn to receive a driver's license, Al didn't make much progress towards acquiring a car until The Item ran a story about his difficulty in obtaining one. A sympathetic auto dealer saw the story and got Al the car for the veteran.

Lewis Wins Wage Raise For Foremen In Georgia

WASHINGTON, July 18.—A government-granted wage agreement covering 136 mine supervisors gave John L. Lewis a new record today in the soft coal industry.

It means that Lewis and his United Mine Workers (AFL) have won the first contract specifying supervisors' wages and working conditions ever negotiated in the industry's history.

Mine owners for years have resisted all attempts to enter into union contracts applicable to supervisors on the contention that supervisors represent management.

Talmadge Win Likely In Georgia

ATLANTA, July 18.—The prediction has swung again in Georgia's senate, sending Eugene Talmadge, the defender of white supremacy, to the governor's mansion for the fourth time.

The returns are not all in from yesterday's Democratic primary—the counting may last for hours yet—and no one is conceding anything, but Talmadge's apparent lead is increasing.

The unit votes are what count in Georgia and Talmadge has enough indicated unit votes to win, with some to spare. Yet 36-year-old James V. Carmichael is leading in the popular vote. Georgia's 119 counties, many of warding of the contract for the paving of Union street by the ways and drainage commission. Friday, is expected to permit work to start the first of next week. City Engineer Frank Gowdy said today.

Four bids, ranging from $22,180 to $29,400, will be considered by the commission at tomorrow's meeting. A sheet asphalt job, similar to work done on Market street a few years ago, will be used to pave Union street from Chestnut street to Broad street.

Provisional work by the utility companies and the city department will have been completed by Monday the city engineer stated, and the paving crews will be able to start the task immediately.

The entire job should be done within seven days, Gowdy estimated.

William Cook, an attendant at the Warrenton Hospital, said that he had "heard" that six persons were killed, but he had no official knowledge. Withstand said first reports indicated a workman digging in the street had punctured a gas main. Equal Rights For Women Stalls OPA

WASHINGTON, July 18.—OPA got off today of the legislative picture today by unrelated fights over women's rights and the price of goods.

O'ME, O'MY, O'MOTHER

O'me, O'my, O'mother,
O'mother, O'me, O'my,
Three cheers for Captain Smith (DiGrande)
And the boys of English High.

WASH 'EM OUT

Wash 'em out, wring 'em out, hang 'em on the line,
We can beat _____ any old time.

GIVE 'EM THE AX

Give 'em the ax, the ax, the ax,
Give 'em the ax, the ax, the ax,
Where,
Right in the neck, the neck, the neck,
Right in the neck, the neck, the neck,
Who,

END, CENTER

End, center, tackle, guard,
Come on English, hit 'em hard.
Grab that ball, run right through,
Come on English, we mean you.

YEA COACH

Yea Coach, yea Palombo,
Yea, yea Coach Palombo.

Team, team, yea.

GO BACK

Go back, go back, go back to the woods,
You haven't got, you haven't got, you haven't got the goods,
You haven't got the rhythm, you haven't got the jazz,
You haven't got the team that English has.

STRAWBERRY SHORTCAKE

Strawberry shortcake, huckleberry pie,
V-I-C-T-O-R-Y, are we in it,
Well I guess,
English High School, yes, yes, yes.

FIGHT, FIGHT

Fight, fight, team fight,
Fight, fight, with all your might,
Shoulder to shoulder,
Knee to knee,
Come on team to victory.

ONE, TWO, THREE

One, two, three, laconga,
English is the stronger,
We've got pep, we've got vim,
Come on team, let's win.

TOUCHDOWN, TOUCHDOWN

Touchdown, touchdown, touchdown boys,
You make the touchdown, we make the noise,
With a suzy que, and a trucking on down,
Come on English, go to town.
